MORROCH BAY

Morroch Bay is a remote coastal smallholding on the Rhins of Galloway.

The spring fed cottages are approx. ¼ mile apart, directly accessible by four wheel drive vehicle or a short walk from the cliff top.

Morroch Cottage is surrounded by lawns whilst the Southern Croft opens onto the rocky shoreline protected by Scottish Natural Heritage.

MORROCH COTTAGE

1 double bedroom, 2 twin-bedded rooms, 1 bunk bedded room, bathroom with WC and separate shower room, cosy lounge with bay view, open fire and dining area, kitchen and large veranda with extensive bay views.

Fully double-glazed with electric central heating. Microwave, electric cooker, refrigerator, deep freeze, telephone, colour TV, video and music centre.

SOUTHERN CROFT

Completely modernised and enjoying a spectacular south west facing seafront position.

Large tiled dining kitchen with under-floor heating, feature wood burner, French windows to shoreline, cooker and fridge. One double bedroom, lounge with TV, wood burner and double futon. Shower room with WC. Fully double-glazed with electric central heating.

Please keep this house pet-free.
